

WE'RE LISTENING TO WHAT YOU HAVE TO SAY

HERE IS WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT THE CAYMAN NATIONAL PARTIAL OFFER

On September 14, 2018, Republic Bank Trinidad and Tobago (Barbados) Limited (RBTTBL) proposed to acquire a minimum of 51% and up to 74.99% of the ordinary shares of Cayman National Corporation Ltd. As of December 3, 2018, the number of acceptances stood at 86.36%. As RBTTBL has received acceptances in relation to more than 74.99% of the ordinary shares, the total number of ordinary shares to be taken up by RBTTBL from each accepting shareholder will be determined in accordance with the formula found on page 5 of the Partial Offer Circular, which is available at <https://cncshares.ky>.

The expiry of the Partial Offer has been extended four times and we do understand that this may raise some questions or concerns.

Over the past few weeks, we have been carefully listening to you. We hope the following summary of questions and answers provides clarification to the partial offer process.

Why was the Partial Offer expiry date extended?

The Partial Offer was originally scheduled to expire at 5:00 pm on October 22, 2018, and has been extended to December 21, 2018.

Our offer must be formally reviewed by all the relevant Government and regulatory bodies. It is normal for this process to take some time, and we may find that another extension is required after December 21, 2018. Should this happen (i.e. if additional time is required for receipt of the requisite government and regulatory approvals) we will continue to seek further two-week extensions until the review process is completed.

Who are the necessary government and regulatory bodies?

Approval of the Partial Offer is required from:

- Central Bank of Barbados
- Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago
- Cayman Islands Monetary Authority
- Government of the Cayman Islands (Governor in Cabinet)
- Isle of Man Financial Services Authority
- Dubai Financial Services Authority – Approval received 06/12/18

Is there a problem with the regulatory process and what is (RBTTBL) doing to assist?

There is no problem with the regulatory process. Approvals are required from all six of the relevant bodies listed above. As you can imagine, this takes time. We continue to work closely with these multiple bodies by answering any questions they may have or providing clarification when needed. This assists with their review and helps move things along.

RBTTBL and CNC will continue to work diligently with all regulatory bodies to assist with their review of the Partial Offer and remain firmly committed to completing the purchase of up to 74.99% of the ordinary shares of Cayman National in the shortest timeframe possible.

When can shareholders expect to be paid?

Upon receiving all of the regulatory and government approvals, we will initiate payment to the accepting shareholders as soon as reasonably possible.

Shareholders who would like to withdraw their acceptance can do so at anytime prior to the closing of the Partial Offer.

I have not accepted the Partial Offer, but would like to do so now?

If you wish to accept the Partial Offer, you must tender your shares by completing the Form of Acceptance, which is provided to all shareholders and is available at <https://cncshares.ky>. These forms should be sent to 2nd Floor, Suite 6201, 62 Forum Lane, Camana Bay, PO Box 30239, Grand Cayman KY1-1201, Cayman Islands. If you do not wish to accept our Partial Offer, then you do not need to take any action.

We look forward to the timely completion of this transaction and to welcoming Cayman National to the Republic Group family. We know Cayman National is your bank and we do not want to change this. If you have any questions, please send them via email to info@republicfinancialholdings.com

RBTTBL CLARIFIES EXTENSIONS TO THE EXPIRY DATE OF ITS PARTIAL OFFER FOR CAYMAN NATIONAL

In a Partial Offer circular dated September 14, 2018, Republic Bank Trinidad and Tobago (Barbados) Limited (RBTTBL) proposed to acquire a minimum of 51% and up to 74.99% of the ordinary shares of Cayman National Corporation Ltd. (Cayman National) by way of a tender offer to Cayman National shareholders at an offer price of US$6.25 per Cayman National share. The Partial Offer, which was originally scheduled to expire on October 22, 2018, has been extended to December 21, 2018. In light of this extension, RBTTBL wishes to advise Cayman National shareholders of the following:

RBTTBL's Partial Offer to Cayman National

- The Partial Offer was originally scheduled to expire at 5:00 p.m. on October 22, 2018, unless extended.
- According to the terms of the Partial Offer, RBTTBL is required to initiate payment to the accepting shareholders three (3) business days following the expiry of the Partial Offer.

Government and Regulatory Approvals

- In keeping with the terms of the Partial Offer circular, the closing of the Partial Offer is subject to certain conditions, including (without limitation) receipt of necessary government and regulatory approvals. As such, the Partial Offer is subject to the review of:
 - Central Bank of Barbados
 - Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago
 - Cayman Islands Monetary Authority
 - Government of the Cayman Islands (Governor in Cabinet)
 - Isle of Man Financial Services Authority
 - Dubai Financial Services Authority - Approval received on December 6, 2018

Expiry Date Extensions And Payments to Accepting Shareholders

- Given that the payments to the accepting shareholders cannot occur in the absence of the relevant regulatory and government approvals, the original expiry date of the Partial Offer has been extended to December 21, 2018, unless otherwise further extended (i.e. in the event that additional time is required for receipt of the requisite government and regulatory approvals).
- RBTTBL will seek two-week extensions to the expiry date of the Partial Offer until approval is granted. The government and regulatory review process is well under way and it is therefore hoped that it will be completed in the not too distant future.
- In the interim, RBTTBL and Cayman National continue to work diligently with the relevant regulatory and governmental bodies to assist with their review of the Partial Offer and remains firmly committed to completing the purchase of up to 74.99% of the ordinary shares of Cayman National in the shortest timeframe reasonably possible.
- As at close of business on December 3, 2018, the number of acceptances stood at 86.36%.

Responding to RBTTBL's Partial Offer

- Shareholders who wish to accept the Partial Offer but have not submitted their completed Form of Acceptance must tender their shares by completing the Form of Acceptance provided to all shareholders, and which is also available at cncshares.ky. Shareholders who do not wish to accept RBTTBL's Partial Offer do not need to take any action.
- Shareholders who have accepted the Partial Offer and wish to withdraw their acceptance may notify RBTTBL in writing by:
 - email to Republic.Offer@cnifs.com, or
 - by post to Cayman National Securities Ltd. (Attn: CNS Receiving Agent), 2nd Floor, Suite 6201, 62 Forum Lane, Camana Bay, PO Box 30239, Grand Cayman KY1-1201, Cayman Islands,
- The mail or letter of withdrawal must be from the registered Shareholder, and must be received before the Expiry Date. It must also clearly state the registered name of the holder of the Shares, the total number of Shares in respect of which the Shareholder has accepted the Partial Offer, and the Shareholder's intention to withdraw acceptance.
